

EXHIBIT C

James Driesch
45 Stimpson Hill
Hartland, Vermont

Highlights of Qualifications

- Experienced architectural designer and project manager, with strong background in structural knowledge and practical construction experience.
- Specialization in residential design.
- Expertise in timber frame design and engineering.
- Extensive experience in conventional construction design and engineering.

Professional Experience

Timberpeg, Inc. 1975-present
West Lebanon, NH

- Chief Designer 1990-present
Design custom Timberpeg homes for clients. Meet with clients, assess needs and implement all phases of developing a custom design.
- Timberpeg Training School Instructor 1986-present
Develop and deliver specialized training for new dealers.
- Project Coordinator 1983-1990
Scheduling and coordination of all design projects for Design Department staff.
- Design Supervisor 1979-1983
Oversee all design work for department.
- Project Designer 1975-1979
Responsible for design and working drawings of assigned work.

William R. Huntington, AIA 1972-1975
Rochester, VT

- Design, draft and project assistant with two architects for commercial and residential design firm.

Education

Vermont Technical College A.S. Degree 1972
Randolph, VT
Architecture and Building Engineering

Harvard H. Ellis Technical College Diploma 1970
Danielson, CT
Architectural Design

Publications-Magazine Features

Development and illustration of designs for Timberpeg catalog 1979-present
Cape Cod Home 2004, 1998

Residential Architect 1998
Woodstock Common 1989
Country Living 1988

Awards

Sales and Marketing (SAM) Awards from the NH Association of Home Builders
Best in Show- 2001, 1997
Gold-2001, 1997
Silver-2002

First place Senior Design Award – Vermont Technical College – 1972

Board & Volunteer Activities

Vermont Technical College
Advisory Board Member - Architecture Program 1980-1996

Soccer Coach
Hartland, VT 5 years
Hartford, VT 4 years
Lightning-Hanover, NH 1 year